WELCOMING NEW FAMILY MEMBERS

Is the person sitting near you new to our parish family? How would you know? Are you likely to ask, or are you one to assume someone else will reach out to them? Perhaps you could be that “someone else”!

As our Parish continues to welcome new parishioners to our family it is up to each of us to be good hosts to our new members. You may recall, several weeks ago, we asked for volunteers to be part of a new ministry whose purpose was to reach out to our new parishioners as we work toward making them feel at home. We now have that ministry in place, and they are asking for your help/support. The Welcome Committee is asking other Incarnation families to be Incarnation Welcome Ambassadors who will also reach out to the new parishioner(s) and offer any assistance, friendship or support they may need. It is helpful for families to reach out to other parish families. If you are willing to be one of those who “reaches out with both hands, jumps in with both feet and encounters Jesus and are His presence for others”, please be sure and contact one of the Hosanna Welcome Ministers. They include: Patti Gillespie, Chris Bramlage, Kelly Plate, Christine Johnson, Deb Ruummele and Maggie Fingers. You may also contact me at the parish office, and I’ll ensure your name is passed along to the team.

You can only make a good first impression once. When new parishioners are lovingly welcomed, it is like rocket fuel. We want to inspire new parishioners to be part of our outstanding ministries and social activities. Recent guests who attended mass at our parish commented that Incarnation is an “amazing parish”..... and we are! Of late, Father Pat talked about opportunities. This is an opportunity for all of us to “show the love” to those around us who are joining our Parish and waiting to feel that special feeling of “family”.

In addition, and as part of the welcoming process, we are now posting photos of new parishioner families in the church vestibule. Please be sure and stop by on your way in and out of mass and have a look at the photos. A smile goes a long way. An invitation for a cup of coffee or a brief conversation makes a difference with people who are new, whether it is a new job or a new parish. New parishioners have joined our Parish for a reason. It is up to all of us to show them their choice of Incarnation was a good one.

Social Media and Incarnation Church

The Danger of Thankfulness

Thankfulness and danger don't seem to mix. How could it possibly be dangerous to be thankful?! Because I'm as strong a realist as an idealist, I'm a big fan of Murphy's Law, which probably has something to say about being thankful and how it might end up bad. In fact, I live on the edge regarding the thankful danger all the time...in the bulletin!

One of the dangers of giving thanks in the parish bulletin, something I strive to do every week, is that I'll miss somebody or something. A case in point is last week's bulletin contribution about the 5 PM Oktoberfest Mass on October 2. I thanked school and office personnel. I thanked W. G Grinders and Warped Wing Brewery. With regret I missed perhaps the essential key to our 5PM Masses: The Nearer to God Band

Members of the Nearer to God Band are a wonderful blessing to us and exemplary in good stewardship of Talent! I work to be grateful to them with regular applause from the congregation. However, I dropped the ball in thanking them for the Mass last week when they were particularly "in the zone" and a channel of the Holy Spirit during that liturgy. I love you Nearer to God Band members! Many thanks for your awesome ministry to Jesus and us!!

Mission Sunday and its Envelope

Mission Sunday is next weekend. We are all called to be missionaries, evangelical in our role of telling family, friends and strangers alike about our experience of Jesus' Good News. Please see the Mission Sunday Envelope in our bulletin packet to help worldwide with our treasure.

Social Media

Please see the article below for information about some of our social media offerings. Thanks to staff member, Joan McPherson, assistant to the bookkeeper, for helping us organize and maximize social media! Sincerely and with Love in Christ,
Fr. Pat

Staying Connected to Your Flock

We have a tremendous community here, and we want to make sure it is as easy as possible for every one of you to be involved and connected to it all.

A few weeks ago, we launched a new communication tool called Flocknote. Flocknote is going to allow you to receive updates from us via email and text. There are several ways you can subscribe:

Text to join: Text INCAR7 to 84576

You will be sent a text with a link to join.

Visit our web site: www.incarnation-parish.com

The link to sign up for Flocknote can be found under "Latest News", or at the bottom of the home page.

Visit our custom URL:

Churchoftheincarnationcentervill.flocknote.com

You will see a screen with our logo and a place to fill in your information.

Once you have joined, you need to subscribe to the information you would like to receive.

We recommend that everyone subscribe to our weekly newsletter, "Church of the Incarnation News". This weekly newsletter will include regular group and ministry communications; Fr. Pat's column, and the parish bulletin.

There will be updates about special events, as well as inclement weather notices that may effect those events.

You can also subscribe to Groups. Our "Groups" in Flocknote are still forming, and we will announce new groups for you to join as they are formed. In the meantime, we have groups for Young Adults, The Youth Group, and several Study Groups.

As you may know, our Parish App is no longer active. Flocknote will send out regular communications via email and text, but it is not intended to replace our Parish App. We are currently looking into other App options and hope to have the situation resolved soon. In the meantime, Flocknote and our Parish Website remain our regular sources of digital communication.

We are on a mission here at Church of the Incarnation, and we want you to be a part of it. This is a great opportunity for you to get plugged in to the many wonderful things we have going on here. If you are having trouble, have a suggestion, or would like to ask a question, please do not hesitate to reach out to us. We would be happy to help!

Other Digital Tools, Instagram and Facebook:

We recently created a presence on Instagram; you can find us on Instagram at incarnation_catholic_church, as well as on Facebook at, The Church of the Incarnation. There will be more engagement on both of these platforms once we hire a Director of Marketing. In the meantime, we encourage you to follow us there and leave a comment using the hashtag #HelloIncarnation.

Find Streaming on our Web Page:

We are continue to stream Masses; you can find the link on the home page of our parish website: incarnation-parish.com. You can find the streaming schedule on the front page of our bulletin. Recently, our parish website went through a major renovation and now includes a module for "Latest News" as well as, "The Pastor's Column". You can also find current bulletins on the home page.

All of these digital platforms allow us to connect with you in as many ways as possible and to invite others to join us. Digital Media is like a living, breathing, thing, and it is always changing. Our hope is that it will be an additional tool that will allow us to stay connected to one another. Keep us in your prayers as we continue our search for a Marketing Director. We welcome your feedback, specifically about the Parish App and what you miss the most. To submit your feedback send an email to info@incarnation-parish.com. We hope to hear from you.

Assistant Bookkeeper

Dear Parishoners,

(I am in the 6th grade and have seen the school change because of you!) Thank you for supporting our school by buying chairs and desks for us. My favorite thing about school is the after school sports, especially cross country and track. Without you, this school would not be possible. There is no way on earth that the school will be as it is now without your help. Thank you!
